

Right Here, Right Now

Lumi Herber Davies

Intro:       6       5       4       4

verse 1

          1                   3
I lift up my eyes to fix my gaze

          5                                   1
Stand in amazement, for me His life He gave

          1                   3
His blood was shed to bring me in

                          5                                   1       1
Now seated with the Father, because Jesus wins

chorus

          6                   5                                   4
Right here, right now, this is what I'm made for

          6                   5                                   4
Your presence, my Jesus, this is what I came for

verse 2

          1                   3
He chose the cross to bring me home

          5                                   1
Gave me inheritance, called me His own

          1                                   3
I'm one with the Father, removed from my sin

          5                                   1       1
Known by a new name, because Jesus lives

bridge

2majsus                                   5sus4
Would Your presence surround me, Your joy overtake me

                                  3                                   4
Goodness and mercy chase me, Now let your kingdom come
